2. A standard Certificate will state only the following information without further amendments:
  - a. The date you were admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore;
  - b. Whether you are still practising, or when you ceased practice, or date when you last held a practising certificate, or that you never held a practising certificate (as the case may be);
  - c. That your name is on the Roll of the Supreme Court of Singapore and whether any adverse order has been entered against you on the Roll; and
  - d. Whether there are pending/previous disciplinary charges made out against you.
3. If you have pending/previous disciplinary charges made out against you, the Society is obliged to make mention of these charges in the Certificate.
4. Requests for inclusion of information in the Certificate which differ from those set out in paragraph 2 above (i.e. a customised certificate) must be made to the Law Society of Singapore ("Society") in writing via email. If your request is granted there will be an additional charge of SGD$100.00 with applicable GST (currently 9%).
5. The Society reviews the terms and conditions and templates of the Certificate from time to time and reserves the right to issue the Certificate per the prevailing template as at the time of your application.
6. Please note that as the templates for the Certificate have been approved by Council of the Law Society of Singapore, we are unable to delete words/sentences/paragraphs that are in the standard template.
7. All Certificates must be addressed to a specified addressee with a specified address (please note that no other information, such as identification numbers, should be included in the address). We are unable to issue Certificates addressed to "To Whom It May Concern".
8. If you choose to collect the Certificate from the Society, you must do so within one (1) month from the date of issue, failing which, the Certificate will lapse as of the date falling 1 month from the date of issue. You will be required to submit a fresh application with payment of the requisite application fees for the issuance of a fresh Certificate.
9. The time period for processing a standard Certificate is around 14 working days from the date of our email confirmation in paragraph 1. 11. We will send you a draft of the Certificate for your review and confirmation as to whether any amendments are required. Strictly no amendments will be permitted once you have confirmed the draft and the Society has issued the Certificate.
